

Notably, Sergeant Rios is at the helm of the Macomb Veterans Action Collaborative (MVAC), where she spearheads the mission to establish a "No Wrong Door" system of care. Her volunteer endeavors further showcase her commitment to the community, from serving as a Post Service Officer at the VFW Disco Post 4659 to managing the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program, preparing over 2,300 tax returns for veterans and low-income individuals.

Under her extraordinary leadership, Macomb County earned the prestigious title of Veteran Friendly County of the Year from the Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency in 2021. Master Sergeant Laura A. Rios' dedication, leadership, and unwavering service make her a beacon of inspiration and a deserving recipient of this esteemed recognition.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring this true champion for those who put everything on the line in service to our Nation.

CELEBRATING THE CAREER OF
THE PRESIDENT AND CEO OF
THE BROWARD CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS, KELLEY
SHANLEY

HON. JARED MOSKOWITZ

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. MOSKOWITZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Kelley Shanley, the President and CEO of the Broward Center for the Performing Arts, for his 25 years of leadership and countless contributions to the industry.

As a patron of the arts, Kelley Shanley has made endless contributions to Broward County, including but not limited to a yearly $130 million financial impact, as well as opening the Rose Miniaci Arts Education Center, which has fostered a love of the arts for over 130,000 students annually. Under his leadership, the Broward Center has developed a reputation as a leader in the performing arts industry, with over 700 performances each year, viewed by more than 700,000 guests. It is known for bringing South Florida the finest arts and entertainment programs. The Broward Center has become a cultural anchor and beacon of community impact and engagement in the downtown arts district.

Shanley is admired for many things, but his commitment to innovation and how he has redefined the role of the performing arts center stand out the most. Through his hard work and leadership, the Broward Center and The Parker, a sister theater, have been revolutionized and transformed into world-class entertainment facilities.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you join me in recognizing the President and CEO of the Broward Center for the Performing Arts, Kelley Shanley, for his outstanding career and leadership of the Broward Center in Florida's 23rd Congressional District.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate of February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference. This title requires all such committees to notify the Office of the Senate Daily Digest—designated by the Rules Committee—of the time, place and purpose of the meetings, when scheduled and any cancellations or changes in the meetings as they occur.

As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.

Meetings scheduled for Tuesday, January 23, 2024 may be found in the Daily Digest of today's RECORD.
